Additional Study Resources for 2021 Paraoptometric Examinations

Following the recent Job Task Analysis (JTA) survey, the Commission on Paraoptometric Certification and Professional Testing Corporation developed new paraoptometric examinations for 2021. New content outlines based on the JTA survey results are available in the 2021 Paraoptometric Examination Handbook and EyeLearn. (Note: the CPOC examination was reviewed and revised for 2021 but is still based on ICD-10.)

Study resources are available in EyeLearn for members and AOA Marketplace for non-members. Refer to the chart of comparable resources.
